

Renaissance!

San Fermin

A renaissance, another day
To tiptoe on the balustrade
Get over you, like anything
I ever could

It's easier from far away
Imagine this another way
I know the lines to every play
The best ones cry

So please come wake me up

There's a mob at the door
I hear them calling for my head
And they're scaling the walls
I'm still, still dreaming magnificent things

It's awful high above the stage
In shadows on the balcony
Afraid to dive, it's worse to wait
The best ones cry

Please come wake me up I'm waiting for your—

(2x):

There's a mob at the door
I hear them calling for my head
And they're scaling the walls
I'm still, still dreaming magnificent things

(3x):

Please come wake me up I'm waiting for your love
