

Woman In Red

San Fermin

In a minute, in a drink or two
Oh, my darling
Don't forget it's a good time
It's a party
Tell me all the things you want to do
The thing you want are lying just beneath
I can show you a good time if you let me
Hold still now while I cherish the ground
The lies between us are overreaching
And I think I'm in love with the distance
When you go to sleep
Don't close your eyes
When you go to sleep
Don't close your eyes
All the colors gone black and green
In the hallway, I can hear you scream
I only wanted to hold you in the morning
I'll bow before you, love
I'll bow before you, love
I will never wanna hold you down
No, oh, my darling
Don't forget it's a good time
It's a party
Tiptoe now, it's a merry-go-round
Of muffled sounds
And don't be rough with me
Let's break up with each other in the morning
But the woman in red with little eyes
Oh, you can't expect a man not to fantasize
When you go to sleep
Don't close your eyes
When you go to sleep
Don't close your eyes
Oh, the woman in red with little eyes
Oh, you can't expect a man not to fantasize
Oh, the woman in red with little eyes
Oh, you can't expect a man not to fantasize
Oh, the woman in red
