

Give It A Chance

Sanchez

Your not alone
No, no, no, no
I know this is gonna hurt your heart again
And this I know
Yes, yes, yes
You can count on me I'll be there as your friend
To give it all you got
Don't cry cause its over now
Don't be sorry, things are better now
I will be there to give you everything you need
You can always count on me

And give it chance
I'll make it up to you
And give it a chance
I'll prove this world all wrong
Give it a chance
I'll prove this world to you
I'll teach this world a lesson
That will never let you fall
Give it a chance

Its not your fault
No, no, no, no
Do you love this lust of trusting heart
Your rays that fall
Yes, yes, yes
Your so beautiful be to sell away my heart

To give it all you got
Don't cry cause its over now
Don't be sorry, things are better now
I will be there to give you everything you need
You can always count on me

And give it chance
I'll make it up to you
And give it a chance
I'll prove this world all wrong
Give it a chance
I'll make it up to you
I'll teach this world a lesson
That will never let you fall
Give it a chance

Your not alone
No, no, no, no
I know this is gonna hurt your heart again
And this I know
Yes, yes, yes
You can count on me I'll be there as your friend
I will be there to give you everything you need

Give it chance
I'll make it up to you
And give it a chance
I'll prove this world all wrong
Give it a chance
I'll make it up to you
I'll teach this world a lesson
That will never let you fall
