Beneath The Machine

Sanctity

Start the needle up again as I crawl to the chair Anticipate the pain
Feel the charge in the air, sick fascination
Can't wash away this alteration

Beneath the machine Constant noise inside my head Trading blood for ink, into torture I will sink Beneath the machine again

Sometimes a picture to make heads turn Sometimes a badge of honor earned Always a reminder of pain endured Never a way to say these words

Beneath the machine Constant noise inside my head Trading blood for ink, into torture I will sink Beneath the machine again

Just remember
It's all for time
By skin be judged, with my skin define

Beneath the machine Constant noise inside my head Trading blood for ink, into torture I will sink Beneath the machine again
