Sanctus Real

Restless heart
Wait a little while longer
Heaven is holding out for you still
Lay your hand on somebody's shoulder
While you're here show someone you care...
Show them you're there

Inspiration is you and I
Changing nations
Changing lives

We all feel just a little bit older
As names and faces are passing us by
But there is a reason
Our hearts won't grow colder
There is one thing that won't ever change...
It's always the same

Seems we'll never do enough
To tell the world about God's love
But every soul is worth the fight
'Cause we can change the world
By changing just one life
