

Speechless

Sandi Patty

I'm speechless, overcome by joy
That reaches into my heart so deep
It's almost too good to be true

In this quite I'm in wonder of Your kindness
I'm speechless, silenced by how good You are to me

When pain has been so shattering
I could not give it words
There was comforting in a way
That through Your spirit You heard

But now it's all the gratitude
I struggle to express
My amazement had
Your overwhelmed love and faithfulness

I'm speechless, overcome by joy
That reaches into my heart so deep
It's almost too good to be true

In the quite I'm in wonder of Your kindness
I'm speechless, silenced by how good You are to me

When I compare what I deserve
To how I've been so blessed
I am in awe, I find tenderness, I'm speechless

In this quite I'm in wonder of Your kindness
I'm speechless, silenced by how good You are to me
I'm speechless, silenced by how good You are to me
