

I See the Devil in You

Sandi Thom

There ain't no cure
For the pain you prescribed
And I don't turn tail and run
If you let the sun rise
Do I gamble on guessing?
Betting truth against lies

I'd be a fool to believe there's nothing to hide
Say it's not true
I see the devil in you

No sense in stealing
At the price of honesty
The troubles build one by one
Fighting uncertainty
Do I surrender my safety?
For one throw of the dice

I'd be a fool to believe there's nothing to hide
Say it's not true
I see the devil in you
Oh, yeah

Oh, oh
Looking for answers
To questions that won't go away
Oh, yeah
Too many chances
I guess that's the price that you pay
Oh, yeah

I've been a fool
Say it's not true, yeah
Say it's not true, yeah
Say it's not true, yeah
I see the devil in you, oh, oh, oh
Say it's not true
I see the devil in you
