

My Ungrateful Heart

Sandi Thom

Would you lie would you lie lie lie in these lonely arms of mine
I wanna try I will try try try for this love one more time
Don't wanna lose you to the stars
I wish I'd told you from the start
Not to listen to my ungrateful heart.

Baby give me one more chance
And I will shoot down the moon for you
Darling you're my sweet romance
There's nothing that I wouldn't do.

So when you cry when you cry cry cry let me shoulder your tears
I'm gonna try I will try try try to hold on through the years
Don't wanna lose you to the stars
I wish I'd told you from the start
Not to listen to my ungrateful heart.

Baby, give me one more chance
And I will shoot down the moon for you
Darling, give me one last dance
And maybe our love can be true.

Would you lie would you lie lie lie in these lonely arms of mine
I wanna try I will try try try for this love one more time
Don't wanna lose you to the stars
And it's tearing me apart
Cos you listened to my ungrateful heart
You listened to my ungrateful heart
Oh you listened to my ungrateful heart.
