

Always On My Mind

Sandra

We say hello
Kiss on the cheek I know
There's something there
I try so hard to hide

So I walk away
To escape the pain
That I must face
When I look in your eyes

It's so hard to pretend
You're only a good friend
Cause you and me are meant to be
Walking hand in hand

So I try to resist
But I'm burning for you love
I can't get myself
To give it up

I am not supposed to love you
But I can't help it
I am not supposed to want you
But I can't fight it
I am not supposed to show you
My feelings hiding every sign
But I can't lie
You're always on my mind
I can't deny
You're always on my mind

Honestly
I tried to escape from that feeling
I'm supposed to be
That happens everytime
When you're close to me
...
More than a friend
What I hope to be

When you pass me by
I can feel the fire
Try to keep it down
But everybody knows

When we hug goodbye
You hold on so tight
Feels so good
I don't want to let go

It's so hard to pretend
You're only a good friend
Cause you and me are meant to be
Walking hand in hand

So I try to resist
But I'm burning for you love

I can't get myself
To give it up

I am not supposed to love you
But I can't help it
I am not supposed to want you
But I can't fight it
I am not supposed to show you
My feelings hiding every sign
But I can't lie
I can't deny

I am not supposed to love you
But I can't help it
I am not supposed to want you
But I can't fight it
I am not supposed to show you
My feelings hiding every sign
(Every sing)
But I can't lie

I am not supposed to love you
But I can't help it
I am not supposed to want you
(On my mind)
But I can't fight it
I am not supposed to show you
My feelings
