

Echo of My Heart

Sandra

You're the echo...
You're the echo...

take my fear
no more tears love is near and I thought I left it all stand by me break me free make me see there is so much more to reveal your love concentrates within your touch is the committed sin

you're the echo echo of my heart your touch, your kiss, it's love beating forever
your light is dancing between you and me

soul to soul, heart to heart eye to eye, love to love
word to word, face to face two together as one
you're the mirror of my eyes you're the prisoner of my life
you're the meaning of my world
you're the echo...

bounce I feel underneath high-voltage electricity all our reflections between you and me repeated to infinity

you're the echo of my heart ...
