

Shadow of Power

Sandra

Show me the way to you
You make my life come true
Where's the key to the ivory tower
In the shadow of power

Did we never wake up
In the shadow of power
You were meant to be my oasis
My shelter of calmness
Feeling warm and safe
For you give me strength
Freedom from power
And the lust for life

Show me the way to you
You make my life come true
Where's the key to the ivory tower
In the shadow of power
Show me the way to you
You make my life come true
I need your light like a fading flower
In the shadow of power

Still a one thousand steps left to power
Fighting against the irony of my own destiny
Strokes of despise - false games
Are only the incentives of despair

Show me the way to you
You make my life come true
Where's the key to the ivory tower
In the shadow of power
Show me the way to you
You make my life come true
I need your light like a fading flower
In the shadow of power
