

Who I Am

Sandra

Curiosity
I am longing to be free
From longing
Haunted by questions

I'm afraid to fake
Hasistation
Afraid to be
A disgrace

I'm sorry to disappoint you
Do you still love me
I am still your baby
Don't disown me

A women is supposed to love a man
And I've tried the best I can
But this is not who I am

Born to failure
Fightin' for forgiveness
I surrender
In a world that's pointless

Gaining dignty
Losing lies from my past
Who's society
To label me an outcast

I'm sorry to disappoint you
Do you still love me
I am still your baby
Don't disown me

A women is supposed to love a man
And I've tried the best I can
But this is not who I am

I'm free
(I no longer gonna hide)
I'm free
(It's not my fault)
This is just who I am

Born to failure

(I free)
Fightin' for forgiveness
(We can't hide who we are)

Gaining dignity you label me an outcast

Curiosity
I am longing to be free
From longing

I'm sorry to disappoint you
Do you still love me
I am still your baby
Don't disown me

A women is supposed to love a man
And I've tried the best I can
But this is not who I am

I'm sorry to disappoint you
Do you still love me
I am still your baby
Don't disown me

A women is supposed to love a man
And I've tried the best I can
But this is not who I am
