

Surrender

Sanna Nielsen

Low lights

But the music takes me high
Swaying, feeling like a free butterfly
Out on the floor you'll dance with somebody else
I can't take no more,
Want you for myself.

Oh... look into the love light in my eyes
And you're gonna see they tell no lies
We could share a love that's warm and tender
Oh... you just met the greatest love of all
There is nothing else to do but fall
Baby, give it up and just surrender
Oh... surrender
Surrender!

Your eyes
Watching every move I make
And I see every single step that you take
The game is on and I know the way it will end
The battle is won, no need to pretend.

Oh... look into the love light in my eyes
And you're gonna see they tell no lies
We could share a love that's warm and tender
Oh... you just met the greatest love of all
There is nothing else to do but fall
Baby, give it up and just surrender
Oh... surrender
Surrender!
