

Can You Feel The Rain

Santa Cruz

Take, take my hand, watch me bleeding
I will sacrifice to keep this flame alive
I would die for you
Friction creates loneliness
Forever I'll be motionless
One thousand solitary moments keep me awake
No one will come rescue me
Shadows on your empathy
In the name of inequity
Watch me bleed

Can you feel the rain
Crashing down on me
Can you feel the rain...
Ohhh
When it pouring down on me

Hear, hear me scream, I'm falling
Endless wasted days
Get me out of all the haze
Numb myself away
There is nothing you can say anymore
This is rotten right to the core
What the hell was I fighting for?
I wonder at night
No medals given in the finish line
Just a card with a question why?
Guess I really was a fool this time
Let me breathe

Can you feel the rain
Crashing down on me...
Yeahhh
Can you feel the rain...
Ohhh
Pouring down on me
Pouring down on me
Pouring down on me

My baby...
I will set you free
This is gonna be our last goodbye
Once strong, now so fragile
We watch the flame wither and die
I am free!

Can you feel the rain?
Crashing down on me...
Yeahhh
Can you feel the rain
Pouring down on me
Pouring down on me
