

Velvet Rope

Santa Cruz

The mean kid in the block,
Ignorant n' too dumb to give a fuck
How's it possible to be so damn inglorious?

See me on the top
You'll still be in a state of shell shock
Takin' away your dominations, victorious

Ooh
Here comes the motherfucking showdown,
Breakdown!
Wooh
Fuck everything you say
It's only noise pollution
Clock says no more delay
For your suicide solution
Walk, I will lead the way
This is my retribution
Hang yourself to velvet rope

No one's listening
What comes outta your mouth
It's not menacing
The issues that you're dealing with are trivial
The day of reckoning
For you queen of fucking everything
You'll see there's something else beyond material

Ooh
Here comes the motherfucking showdown,
Breakdown!
Wooh
Fuck everything you say
It's only noise pollution
Clock says no more delay
For your suicide solution
Walk, I will lead the way
This is my retribution
Hang yourself to velvet rope

If you want a piece of me
Just come and just get it
Bitch you better wait and see
I know you'll regret it
Don't ask for apologies
Violence is my solution

Hang yourself to velvet
Hang yourself to velvet
Hang yourself to velvet rope!
Fuck everything you say
For your suicide solution
Walk, I will lead the way
