

Life Is Anew

Santana

Nothing is new, they say, under the sun
But then again my soul feels a change
It feels so new
Life is an open vision of the highest, deepest

Because of you, life is new
Because of you, life is new

Alone, I try to change the world
Only to find that I had bared
You came along and with the wave of your hand
You showed us the weight

Because of you, life is new
Because of you, life is new

Because of you, life is new
Because of you, I can fly in the sky, your home
