

My Superman

Santigold

Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey

Well you're a liar and your cues are all wrong
But I can't count all the ways you woo me
I watch you capture what I can't hold
Now make it make some sense to me

You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my
Superman

Hey, hey, you got to live
You got to live
You got to live

Me get high
Bless your soul
You get by
Take me along
But all the static here, it's tearing you a-part
You can't help the way that you, you, you, you

You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my
Superman

(Hey!) You, you, you (hey!)
You gain weight
So walk, walk, walk on now
You know you saved me
Don't-don't, don't go hand down

You are, you are my
You are, you are my
You are, you are my
Superman
