Nothing Is What It Seems (Without You)

You look like you're letting go I know that you won't call on me You look like you're letting go I know what my instincts are telling me And you're fading out It's so hard without you This wasn't my fault

Tell me how am I supposed to live without you This is all that I remember before you changed You're stuck in the dream with next to nothing I'm all alone and nothings what it seems Without you next to me

Sometimes it feels like home So safe in the shade But when the summer fades There's always something missing And now that I'm on my own I know why you just Just couldn't stop And why you had to leave It's so hard, without you This wasn't my fault

Tell me how am I supposed to live without you This is all that I remember before you changed You're stuck in the dream with next to nothing I'm all alone and nothings what it seems Without you next to me

I never imagined I would feel so lost I never imagined it would be so hard I never imagined I would feel so lost I never imagined this would be so hard

Tell me how am I supposed to live without you This is all that I remember before you changed You're stuck in the dream with next to nothing I'm all alone and nothings what it seems Without you next to me

Tell me how am I supposed to live without you This is all that I remember before you changed You're stuck in the dream with next to nothing I'm all alone and nothings what it seems Without you next to me

Tell me how am I supposed to live without you Tell me how am I supposed to live without you
