

In The Girl There's A Room

Sara Groves

In the girl there's a room
In the room there's a table
On the table there's a candle and it won't burn out

In the woman there's a song in the song there is hope in the hope revolution

In the boy there's a voice in the voice there's a calling In the call there's a promise and it won't quiet down

In the man there's vision
In the vision is a road
It's the road to his freedom...

Tell me what you know
About God and the world and the human soul
How so much can go wrong and still there are songs

In the man is a work and the work is his future and the future is his children and he won't slow down

In the woman there's a faith in the faith there's a prayer in the prayer there's a promise...

In the boy is a dream in the dream he is standing and he stands without shaking/ failing/ wavering/ fear and he won't sit down

In the girl is a song
in the hope there's defiance...

Tell me what you know
About God and the world and the human soul
How so much can be wrong
and still there are songs

In their hearts and souls an unstoppable refrain Hope stands/sings in defiance
