

It's Me

Sara Groves

Weather came and caught us off our guard we were just laughing and feelin' alright had such a great time just last night we walked into a minefield undetected you took a tone and I took offense anger replacing all common sense

Oh run for you life all tenderness is gone
in the blink of an eye
all good will has withdrawn and we mark out our paces and stare out from our faces but baby you and I are gone gone gone Incomprehensible layers of isolation now your the man with a heart of stone making me pay here by being alone seemingly justified righteous indignation now I'm the woman who holds all her pain looking for somebody else to blame

We hold all the keys to our undoing cutting me down in small degrees you know my worst insecurities I'm making no effort to understand no one can hurt you like I can deep down inside the girl's waking up she's calling out to the boy she loves

It's me
oh baby it's me how in the world can tenderness be gone
in the blink of an eye

The girl in me she's callin out oh the girl in me she's callin out to the boy in you
to the boy in you

Baby come back baby come back to me
