

Counterfeit Halo

Sara Haze

I thought I was so damn smart
Must've had a bullseye on my heart
But you can bet I'll know better next time

I thought you were heaven sent
I thought you had the best intentions

But it was only a facade and now I know

So I guess it's crash and learn
Everybody has their turn to love and burn
So baby don't change a thing
You can keep your dime store wings
And that COUNTERFEIT HALO

Well you should have a Golden Globe and take an Academy Award home You're self-directed self-produced and self-cast in the starring role

But that hero smile can't hide your villain eyes anymore

So I guess it's crash and learn
Everybody has their turn to love and burn
So baby don't change a thing
You can keep your dime store wings
And that COUNTERFEIT HALO

Running, Flying, Falling, Silent, Screaming, Calling, Mending, Breaking, Still Alive

So I guess it's crash and learn
Everybody has their turn to love and burn

So I guess it's crash and learn
Everybody has their turn to love and burn
So baby don't change a thing
You can keep your dime store wings
