

Hold Me Now

Sara Haze

Hold on, everything's moving
I can't keep doing this, without you next to me

I tried, but I keep falling
The world's pulling me back and I think I know why
You're not by my side

The night is coming down
The darkness falling all around
And I need you here now
To hold me down, down, down
Through this dark night

(Hold me now) So, Hold me now
And hold me tight,
'Cuz you're the only one that grounds me
Knows how to make everything just right
When it's all turning around me
In my day darkness, you're my light
So, Hold me now and hold me tight

Seems like the rain keeps pouring Dark clouds are forming
In my own personal sky

Cold winds keep wrapping round my heart and it feels even worse when we're apart
and I think I know why

When walls start coming down and pieces of me just hit the ground
I need you here now, to hold me down, down, down
Forever and tonight

(Hold me now) So, Hold me now
And hold me tight,
'Cuz you're the only one that grounds me
Knows how to make everything just right
When it's all turning around me
In my day darkness, you're my light
So, Hold me now and hold me tight

Then everything just disappears
'Cuz you're the only one I see Just stay with me and hold me near
So I can finally breathe, Baby

(Hold me now) So, Hold me now
And hold me tight,
'Cuz you're the only one that grounds me
Knows how to make everything just right
When it's all turning around me
In my day darkness, you're my light
So, Hold me now and hold me tight

Just hold me tight, Ohhh
Mhmmmmmm
