All Of This Past

Sarah Bettens

Here I go again Slipping further away Letting go again Of what keeps me in place I like it here But it scares me to death There is nothing here Hmmm mm mmmm mmmm Hmmm mm mmmmm Hmmm mm mmmmm mmmm Hmmm mm mmmmm The light is beautiful But I'm darker than life And you are wonderful But this moment is mine All of this dust All of this past All of this over and gone and never coming back All of this forgotten Not by me I find comfort here 'Cause I know what is lost Hope is always fear For the pain that we cost And I have searched for the reason to go on And I've tried and I've tried But its taken me so long I might be better off Closing my eyes And god will come looking for me in time All of this dust All of this past All of this over and gone and never coming back All of this forgotten Not by me All of this dust All of this past All of this over and gone and never coming back All of this forgotten Not by me I can see myself I look peaceful and pale But underneath I can barely inhale I can hear myself singing the song Over and over until it belongs To me Hmmm mm mmmm mmmm Hmmm mm mmmmm Hmmm mm mmmmm mmmm

Hmmm mm mmmmm
