

Fine

Sarah Bettens

I look up and I look down
I take my shoes off to be closer to the ground
I can think of many ways
To screw up all these perfect days
But I am feeling bold and brave
I think I'll just feel good today

Somehow in this twisted world
I'm really doing fine
You can say this piece of mind
Was never really mine but I feel fine

Here's one reason to be sad
Half of us have nothing and the other feels too fat
But this is not the the time and place
To crucify the human race
There's a massive higher ride
I'm keeping my eyes open wide

Somehow in this twisted world
I'm really doing fine
You can say this piece of mind
Was never really mine but I feel fine
I feel fine

I don't want to close my eyes
Someone tell me how long
I can keep this day inside

Somehow in this twisted world
I'm really doing fine
You can say this piece of mind
Was never really mine

I don't always wake up this alive
But I have you so I feel fine, I feel fine
I feel fine, I feel fine
