

Drags Me Down

Sarah Blackwood

moon shiner come find her she's broken by the river and just can't find her heart oh this devil drags her down sweet sixteen seen things you ain't ever seen still got his eyes open on following a dream but he don't know that this devil will drag him down

but I, I, I, I know
this devil drags them down tonight has finished me off again I just can't keep up and try to kick the drink but my baby knows that this devil drags me down long nights make for longer days you'll never see it coming till it puts you in your place but I, I know that this devil will drag me down

but I, I, I, I know
this devil drags me down

it ain't so tough
being all alone
until you just can't take
you can't keep on closing and locking all your doors cause darling you get older it ain't easy anymore

and I, I, I, I know
and I, I, I, I know
and I, I, I, I know
and I, I, I, I know
and I, I, I, I know
and I, I, I, I know
and I, I, I, I know
