

No Turning Back

Sarah Blasko

I was involved,
Willing or not,
Born in the spark of an eye.
A city on fire,
Is out of control,
I put it down to the match.

In my hand,
On my heart,
Once again.
Against my will,
My own right mind,
Knocked down in the sand.

But there's no turning back,
There's no turning back.
So stop those tears in their tracks
Cause there's no turning back.

So come in your will
To sit on your hands
Did you only want me to love?

To sit for a while,
A talk and a drink,
I followed much to well.

I carried on,
I broke the ice,
It melted once or twice.
I put my heart
Right on the line
Now it's time, my love, it's time.

For there's no turning back,
There's no turning back,
So stop those tears in their tracks,
'Cause there's no turning back.

And when I'm in your arms
I'll try to relax.
Don't wanna lie awake in your arms
Wondering where we're at.
Oh this tossing and turning
Won't clear these blues away
When I am longing just to hear you say,

There's no turning back
There's not turning back
So stop those tears in their tracks
'Cause there's no turning back

There's no turning back
There's no turning back,
So put your heart in my hands,
'Cause there's no turning back,
Oh, there's no turning back,

Oh, there's no turning back,
I said there's no turning back.
