

Follow Me

Sarah Brightman

Come with me to the islands
Come, my love; follow, follow me
Under the lure of pure enchantment
Love will unfold her golden mystery

All night long I will hold you
Till the stars slip into the sea
I'll weave a crown of rainbows in your hair
Many a moon I'll spend with thee

Love is waiting; follow, follow me

Come with me to the islands
Come, my love; follow, follow me
Under the lure of pure enchantment
Love will unfold her golden mystery

Love is waiting; follow, follow me
Love is waiting; follow, follow me
