La Mer

Sarah Brightman

Ancient unkown animals
On a stormy sea
Like Buddha in the water
A velvet energy

As the night takes over
The spirits of the deep
Marvel at his majesty
The whale is in his sleep

Oh, la mer You're shimmering through Oh, la mer Magnificent blue

Shimmering through the water In search of sanctuary Currents travel faster In alien territory

Dancing in the distance In a puff of spray In a single moment The dolphin glides away

Oh, la mer...
