

Rain

Sarah Brightman

Give me your dreams and answers
I know my reply
There's only one chance for living
The clouds' in the sky

When sunlight burns your eyes
I know the children cry
In pain
Dawn comes up
I'm gonna learn your pain
And pray for rain.

We need a chance to start again
Let it rain
I lie awake and feel the pain
Let it rain

I can't even think to reason
The world has gone bad
We're out on the land of Eden
We blow what we have

There's only one hold back
One way for bad to stay
We know
Only whether
We can hope to get
It's heavy rain

We need a chance to start again
Let it rain
I lie awake and feel the pain
Let it rain

So many try to start again
Let it rain
And nothing's gonna stop this pain
Let it rain
Let it rain
Let it rain
