Dolce vita Come and run away with me I can show you Dolce vita I just wanna see a smile back on your face baby Dolce vita You're never gone be happy with him and you know it If you just say a word and we'll get away from here Off to live the good life Daytime number It's the only way I get to talk to you It's the only time you get away from the big, bad wolf, baby And my mind wonders Every time I think about you two I think about what he's doing to you How could he be so cruel to you? Dolce vita Come and run away with me I can show you Dolce vita I just wanna see a smile back on your face baby Dolce vita You're never gone be happy with him and you know it If you just say a word and we'll get away from here Off to live the good life We can fly away I know you gonna find somebody Who's gonna treat you like a real lady And who will go wherever you want him with you baby A man who won't let not stop him From giving you the good life

Everyday is gonna be alright Just trust me Let me show you
