

I Can't Lie

Sarah Connor

So many times I had imagined you
You were a dream waiting to come true
I've never made this kind of wish before
But then again I never wanted something more

You set in motion
Something uncontrollable
You set in motion
Something undeniable

I can't lie I've never seen a guy so fine
I don't know why I feel the way I do inside
I'm going crazy just the thought of you can phase me and I won't deny
You're all that's on my mind

I can't believe the day we met
It seemed to me that you were heaven-sent
You caught my eye and then I knew
I found a dream and boy that dream was you

You set in motion
Something uncontrollable
You set in motion
Something undeniable

I can't lie I've never seen a guy so fine
I don't know why I feel the way I do inside
I'm going crazy just the thought of you can phase me and I won't deny
You're all that's on my mind

You set in motion
Something uncontrollable
You set in motion
Something undeniable
You set in motion
Something unbelievable
You set in motion
Something undeniable

I can't lie I've never seen a guy so fine
I don't know why I feel the way I do inside
I'm going crazy just the thought of you can phase me and I won't deny
You're all that's on my mind

I can't lie I've never seen a guy so fine
I don't know why I feel the way I do inside
I'm going crazy just the thought of you can phase me and I won't deny
You're all that's on my mind

I can't lie I've never seen a guy so fine
I don't know why I feel the way I do inside
I'm going crazy just the thought of you can phase me and I won't deny
You're all that's on my mind

I can't lie I've never seen a guy so fine
I don't know why I feel the way I do inside
I'm going crazy just the thought of you can phase me and I won't deny

You're all that's on my mind
