

Salvia Path

Sarah Fimm

Every one is moving
Everyone is floating around
Into with confusion
Never to be found out again.
Once I found the reason
But lost it in a place I cant find
To a world that I don't like
And I'm quick to assume but never to ask
Will we ever go back to Salvia Path?
And its cold where the living don't go
And everyone is moving
But everyone is safe in the ground
And the scene is a perfect photograph
But we cannot go back to salvia path.
