

Eyes on Fire

Sarah Geronimo

This ain't the first time that I close my eyes
To block the sunrise
It always looked familiar but it breaks to me
Like a new star no matter how far
I see the colors of its radiant skin so clear
Well, too bad when it was me
It was never, never real

Oooohh.ooohh

I don't know where to go from here
It's been a waste of time thinking of you
Darling, I miss you
Can't resist
Pinch me, I'm dreaming again
Oh, I've had the best of days
But now it's time to let them go

You walked across the sunlit sky
And left me all alone
I close my eyes to feel no pain
From the rising sun and its blinding rays
Are you out there on your own
Tell me if you're coming home

Ooohhh.oooohh.ooohh.oooohh

You set my eyes on fire
You set my eyes on fire
You set my eyes on, set my eyes on
Set my eyes on fire
Ohhh... yeah...
This ain't the first time that I close my eyes.
