

I Am Falling

Sarah Geronimo

everynight while i was praying to find someone to love i knew that i would find you somewhere somehow all that matters now i'm right here in your arms so don't ever let me go in your eyes i see myself now in my heart i can feel your heart it's funny how i know you you're all that i want innuendos that i can't explain you've won me over there's no mo re to say when it comes to you my whole world begins we can make it real cause you make me feel that i'm yours tonight and each time we kiss i am feeling free the connection is stron g closer than i hoped it would be i am falling standing close beside you i always lose my guard my feet don't touch the pavement i am up in the stars just one word is all that it takes and so i'm waiting for you to just say when it comes to you my whole world begins we can make it real cause you make me feel that i'm yours tonig ht

and each time we kiss i am feeling free the connection is stron
closer than i hoped it would be when it comes to you nothing i won't do cause you make me see i n a brand new light what i have missed all my life and each time we kiss i am feeli ng free the connection is strong closer than i hoped it would be i am f alling
when it comes to you my whole world begins the connection is st rong
i feel it pulling at me i am falling i am falling
i am falling
