

Just Me

Sarah Geronimo

Boy you are mistaken
Thinking you know me
Flipping through the pages of a magazine
Ah ha
Nothing could be further from the truth
It's all, it's all a lie
Popstar on the cover or the girl next door
Ah ha
Kinda makes you wonder
Who they're looking for
Ah ha
If you read between the lines
You'll find
There's more, there's more to me

Here I am now, it's just me
Let nobody fool ya
Don't care if the world wants some other girl just me
That's all I can be
What you see
Is what you get
Nothing superficial
If one of a kind's what you got in mind
I just might be
The girl of your dreams
Here I am now, it's just me
Let nobody fool ya
Don't care if the world wants some other girl just me
Now and always
Simply, truly
I'm the girl you see
Here I am now
All you get is me

Boy if you want drama
Catch me on tv
Don't think I'll be falling like some movie scene
This heart of mine ready for someone
It's time, it's time, it's time to love
Rumors circulating
None of them are true
All that's resonating
Is how I'm into you
Ah ha
So forget everything you've heard
There's more
There's more to me
