

Edge Of A Dream

Sarah Jarosz

Step to the left, step to the right
The middle of the floor, feels safe tonight
Dancing on, the edge of a dream move in close, will I like what I see

Will I face it? Can I take it?
My soul out on the line
Will the spaces, just absorb me? Will the walls live my lies?

Smiling face, that no one really knows
Singin' bout the passion in my soul
Playin' it safe, move in time with the beat
Take a chance, learn a new dance

Almost eighteen, a real lady now
I'll keep tryin' to figure this life out, I wanna figure it out

Step to the left, step to the right
The middle of the floor, feels safe tonight
