

Left Home

Sarah Jarosz

Left home to "Please come back."
Return; the rosebuds had already given their time.

Tonight public transportation's my private ride, hey.
I; I found my wings and I'm ready to fly.

Some things in life are better left unknown, for there would be no "Wanna know why"

But hands have traveled through this world
I want to give all those things a try, yeah.
