Drastic Measures

Sarah Slean

I should go to drastic measures Steal enormous works of art Write a piece for eighteen violins It's no march But it's a start

They rub their eyes and wake distracted Frantically they fill their days Please say I will never be like that Safe, politely dazed Politely crazed

Don't you want my love It's a cloud it's a broken boat But it might make you laugh a bit Easier I'm like the trees in the midnight parks Oozing danger igniting sparks We've been left by the viaducts With the last flame Of the universe

I never held a truer notion Then when my dear I held your hand May your shadow always follow you Through our getaway plan Our master plan

Don't you want my love It's a cloud it's a broken boat But it might make you laugh a bit Easier I'm like the trees in the midnight parks Oozing danger igniting sparks We've been left by the viaducts With the last flame Of the Universe

Ohooooooooooo

Craaaaaaazy Don't you want my love? It's a cloud it's a broken boat But it might make you laugh a bit Easier I'm like the trees in the midnight parks Throwing tantrums igniting sparks We've been left by the viaducts With the last flame Of the universe
