Mary

Sarah Slean

She's looking out the north to a galaxy A faithful boat trip 'cross a northern sea Along a frosty window she writes her name Oh daughter, this is how she became

Mary, go ahead and have your little baby Mary, toughest of the tough But still a lady

Oh, I've got all the courage I'll ever need I wax poetic on my enemies The century is raging but so are we No matter what I know I got a symphony called

Mary, go ahead and have your little baby Mary, toughest of the tough But still a lady

Out of dark days Stay up airplane Take my ice sleigh Stay up airplane

Go ahead and have your little baby Mary, toughest of the tough But still a lady

Mary, toughest of the tough Toughest of the tough
