

15 Minutes Older

Sasha

Wakin' up
Everything is chaging cause today
Is your day
That's what they say
Soon you'll be writing history
Right on TV
You know it's now or never

Strike a pose, there you go
Down-the-line, before you know
You're doing what they told ya'
Lights go off, but life goes on
You're out before it's begun
The hands upon your shoulder
Suddenly grow colder
And you're 15 minutes older

Waking up
Realizing nothing's left to do
Sure they found another you
And soon he'll be writing history
On your TV
You know it's now and never

Strike a pose, there you go
Down-the-line, before you know
You're doing what they told ya'
Lights go off, but life goes on
You're out before it's begun
The hands upon your shoulder
Suddenly grow colder
And you're 15 minutes older
15 minutes older
15 minutes older
15 minutes older

You're not the only one
Who wants to live forever
So beware when it comes to now or never

Wakin' up
Everything is changing cause today
Is your day, that's what they say

Strike a pose, there you go
Down-the-line, before you know
You're doing what they told you
Lights go off, but life goes on
You're out before it's begun
The hands upon your shoulder
Suddenly grow colder
And you're 15 minutes older
