

Growing Egos

Sasha

Everything's prepared
Time for truth and dare
Minds are made up
Minds are made up

Doubts are blown away
Left to yesterday
Now is tomorrow
Now is tomorrow
It's done, whatever may come

He knows, she knows
Nothing's granted when anything goes
Growing egos fail to hold the line
Sometimes

Many miles to go
Many sides to show
No one said it
Would be easy

It's hard enough to see
But good enough to keep
Minds are made up
Rewinded to line up again
Taking a stand

He knows, she knows
Nothing's granted when anything goes
Growing egos fail to hold the line
Sometime

He knows, she knows
Nothing's granted when anything goes
Growing egos fail to hold the line
He knows, she knows
Nothing's granted when anything goes
Growing egos fail to hold the line

Sometime
Sometime
Sometime...
