

Love Is All Around

Sasha

It's that feeling again
That's making me high
It's like floating on air
Reaching out for the sky

That feeling again
When two hearts collide
It comes deep from within
And your Soul's open wide

It's like you're caught in free fall
With no cares at all
Look out then you can see
It's as high as you can get
Open your heart and let it be

Love is all around
Love is all around
Look at what we found
Love is all around

It's that feeling again
And you can't hold it in
As you open your eyes
Your head starts to spin

Ooh, that feeling again
When you don't have to try
It's that ten out of ten
That's so hard to describe

Interlude (It don't get any better than this)

I can't describe what
Makes me feel that way
No, you can't fight it
Just let it happen naturally
