Open Water

Sasha

Lost in a crowd
follow them all around I know the way out but I'm not in the mood unbreakable rules
failed, I'm not breakin' me easily don't punish me

when it comes to decide I'm alone and not gonna hide
I'm right there and feel like in open water
but I feel like I know where to go cause I feel that wherever I'm falling I'm falling somewhere I can feel

Not gonna run
I'm just gonna take my time maybe I'm wrong
to walk on thin ice

I'm not looking down I'm just going straight ahead carefree
but not endlessly

when it comes to decide I'm the one who's not gonna hide
I'm right here

and I feel
but I feel
cause I feel
that wherever I'm falling I'm falling somewhere I can feel

but I feel
that wherever I'm falling

but I feel

that wherever I'm falling
