

Raindrops

Sasha

I'm standing here on the parking lot waitin' for my girl my umbrella is broken my car's been stolen what am I doin' here the wind is blowin' , I'm gettin' cold when will she appear?
I'm feelin' lonely my coat is wet, nothin' more to fear

Raindrops are fallin' on my head

I'm still waitin on the parking lot my girl is not in sight I think she left me for another guy the one she met last night I start to dream of a better day my island in the sun but when I awake I realize nothin' has been done
