

Breakin'

Sass Jordan

I can feel it breakin'
Feel the whole world shakin'
I can feel it breakin'

Well, I heard that your were found half dead
On un-forgiving ground
And though reports weren't all that clear
They found you somewhere north of here

And now there's nothin' I can do
More helpless than a child of two
I wish so bad I could've saved you
That all this love could somehow change you

So how do I just let you go
As if I'm strong, as if I know
And what am I supposed to do
As if you cared, as if you knew

I can hear the thunder
Feel you goin' under
I can feel it breakin'
Feel the whole world shakin'

Have you lost enough of what you got
To make you lose your mind
Are you holdin' on to one last drop
To make you last or maybe make you stop?
