

Do What I Can

Sass Jordan

Misery is dead, and pain has resurrected me, because hell became a choice that I no longer want to see
So I decided to take myself into a better frame of mind
And in doing so, I guess I'm gonna have to leave this past behind
I built this wall, I'll break it down

I don't know who you are
I'm not sure who I am
But I wanted to try
So I'll do what I can

Now, I'm alive and I understand that Somethings in this world, I'll never know
But I do know that we are all connected somehow Underneath our skin, our words, our life
And love is the only thing for which I'll never make a compromise
I built this world I'm living in

I don't know who you are
I'm not sure who I am
But I'm wanted to try
So I'll do what I can

Cause I walked into that life without my faith beside me
So I paid to take the ride
And I never to see check if things were right inside of me
I guess that's the reason why

I don't know who you are
I'm not sure who I am
But I wanted to try
So I'll do what I can

I don't know who you are
And I'm not sure who I am
But I wanted to try
So I'll do what I can
What I can

Know who you are
And I'm not sure who I am
But I wanted to try
So I'll do what I can
