

One Of The Lost Songs

Satanic Surfers

From pranks to protest

To sustainable community projects, from soup kitchens to direct action, education and sabotage it's about waking people up

Cause we've all been put to sleep by this monotonous lullaby, y eah, we've all been fooled by those sugar coated lies, when we' re little kids we might need stories to help us sleep but soone r or later we need stories to wake us up, hey, wake up, nap's o ver

We wake up, each one of us and dreaming ourselves into existenc

We become the poem, we become the song, each one of us is the s tory, happiness depends on how well we tell it, how well we tel l it

Cause we've all been put to sleep by this monotonous lullaby, y eah, we've all been fooled by those sugar coated lies
And their cheating crooked smiles

From pranks to protest

action, education and sabotage it's about waking people up
