

A new black order

Satanic Warmaster

Black Metal is War

The glare of churches burning in the night

The glow of nails and steel in the darkness

Nordic blood that boils with hatred is the knife

That slits the throat of the christian god...

Eliterian tyranny, strife for a revolution

Is the path towards the new black order

To fight for the kult is not the way of the weak

We reign with the iron fist of tyranny and the will to power...
