

Hogtied Angel

Satariel

No candle can light this dark place happy
I look on traces of tragedy
Tears still wet and mould through these walls
When I was sober and clear in mind
I saw warmth and made it to my home
This crypt of putrefying flesh

Entombed, now in utter hell
Concealed, away from you mankind
Dismayed, by their liveliness
A pharao's tomb built by suffering

Now crippled by intoxication
I realize this is hell
Is life eternal here
O please - come and save me

I know I hold the daggers
Five hundred blades at my heart and throat
Cutting with devilish slowness
Mars has turned its moons on me

Entombed, now in utter hell
Concealed, away from you mankind
Dismayed, by their liveliness
A pharao's tomb built by suffering

Forever I shall endure
My soul's burning ache
And I must prevail
Though my heart a thousand times will break

Entombed, now in utter hell
Concealed, away from you mankind
Dismayed, by their liveliness
A pharao's tomb built by suffering
