

Empty Handed

Saturnus

She's the wind that shatters neverending tears
She's the pain within thy heart Nothingness as I fall

And I'm falling behind empty handed behind these eyes inflamed inflamed by darkness
And empty smiles

She's the tempter of the night the wildstare in my eye she's the lie i live by the shadow in my eyes

And I'm falling god abandoned Empty handen
with a smile upon my face
And the happiness erased
